Country Report : Thailand

By : Asso Prof. Amnat YouSukh MD.

Ministry of Education

- Office of Higher Education

    - 79 Public Higher Education Institutions

    - 71 Private Higher Education Institutions

    - 19 Community Colleges

for Higher Education : TQF – HEd.

5 Domains of Learning outcomes

1. Ethics

2. Knowledge, Skill

3. Wisdom

4. Communication and Technology

5. Responsibility, Human Relation

This funding is in the form of special depts. They are repaid after the students graduated and have income to support the repayment.

Co-operative Education (Co-op)

- The hand-on experience

- Learn from the classroom and applying to the workplace

- Working alongside professionals in business or industries

- 4-5 years program

- Now : more program in almost all University in Thailand

Thailand's National Research Universities

- Enhancing academic excellence and competitiveness

- Independent to develop research fields in which each university expert

The Center of Excellence (CoE)

- In Chemical Innovation

- In Physics

- Mathematics

- In Hazardous substance Management

- In Post Harvest

- In Agricultural Engineering

- In Medicinal Excellence

- In Energy

- In Petrochemical and material science

- University Business Incutators (UBI) for promoting intellectual properties into new business, new entrepreneurs

- New Business Fund

- From Lab to Market

- Technology Commercialization and Technology Transfer

ASEAN University Network (AUN)

- 30 university across 10 ASEAN countries

- Formation November 1995

- Executive Director Dr. Nantana Gajaseni

  Chulalongkorn University

for Higher Education and Development

(SEAMEO-RIHED)

- Capability building of SEAMEO member countries

- Policy and Planning

- Administration and management of higher Education

- Hosted by Thai government

ASEAN International Mobility for Students (AIMS) Program

- Emerging from Malaysia-Indonesia-Thailand (MIT) Project

- Key Partners and Key Events

Thailand Student Service Association (Thai SSA)

- To enhance cooperation among members in the development of student affairs work.

- To develop the student affairs staffs

- To promote the welfare of students

- To co-operate with international organization

- Community Engagement

- Industrial Engagement

- Local Government Engagement

- Cultural Engagement

- Alumni Engagement

- International Engagement