

APSSA Panel Discussion

◆Date

August 9 (Sat) 13:30 – 15:00

(presentations 60 minutes, discussion and Q&A 30 minutes)

◆Venue

Kambaikan Hardy Hall (Doshisha University, Imadegawa Campus)

◆Moderator and panel

1. Moderator - Professor Reiko Yamada (Doshisha University, JAPAN)
2. Faculty panelist – Mr. Puniamurthy Krishnasamy (MALAYSIA)
3. Faculty panelist – Mr. Peter Gathbonton (Australia)
4. Student panelist – Mr. Yuki YASUI (JAPAN)
5. Student panelist – Ms. Kate Donnelly (Australia)

◆Purpose

In accordance with the theme of APSSA 2014 Japan, “Transforming Experience: Paradigm shift & global best practices to build effective personal and professional capabilities”, the common topics to be discussed in this panel discussion are how student support in higher education has changed (or should change) in response to globalization, and how student support can facilitate the development of global human resources (student panelists may also speak about what kind of student support services they anticipate). Presentations by the panelists on the above theme (about 15 minutes each with PowerPoint) are followed by discussion and Q&A session led by the moderator.

◆Theme

What is the role of student support in the era of globalization? – What is expected of student support in campus globalization and the development of global human resources -